

Enhancements to the OneAnswer investment menu – replacement underlying funds

CONTINUOUS DISCLOSURE NOTICE | SEPTEMBER 2017

This Continuous Disclosure Notice provides important information for current investors of ANZ OneAnswer Investment Portfolio.

What are the changes?

During September 2017 we will replace the underlying funds of five investment options with underlying funds that are highly-rated, and well-positioned to deliver strong performance over the long-term.

The changes will occur at the underlying fund level. For each investment option, we will redeem the units in the current underlying fund and purchase units in the replacement underlying fund.

When will the changes occur?

The underlying fund replacements will take effect on, or around, 18 September 2017.

Which OneAnswer investment options are changing?

The table below provides details of the investment options that are changing.

Current OneAnswer investment option	Replacement OneAnswer investment option	Sector
AMP Capital Responsible Investment Leaders Australian Shares	Perpetual Ethical SRI	Australian shares
AMP Capital Responsible Investment Leaders International Shares	Stewart Investors WorldWide Sustainability	International shares
Capital Group Global Equities (Hedged)	BT Core Hedged Global Shares	International shares
Goldman Sachs Income Plus	BT Monthly Income Plus	Diversified
Zurich Investments Global Thematic Shares	Antipodes Global (Long only)	International shares

Why are these changes being implemented?

At ANZ Wealth we're committed to helping you achieve your financial goals by regularly reviewing the investment menu of ANZ OneAnswer - making sure you have access to market-leading investment funds.

We believe that the replacement underlying funds are more likely to meet their investment objectives, and provide stronger risk-adjusted performance over the long term.

Will the changes have any tax implications?

The replacement of the underlying investment funds by selling current funds may result in the realisation of capital gains at the time of transition. Based on current market values, any resulting capital gains are not expected to be significant, and some redemptions will result in capital losses.

Where a capital gain is made we will consider the implications in late September and determine whether we will process a special distribution of capital gains as a result of the underlying fund replacement. We will keep you updated if there are any distributions of capital gains.

Will there be any transition costs incurred?

As the transition process involves the sell down and purchase of units in underlying funds, transition costs (eg. buy and sell spreads) will apply. The total buy/sell spread will be reflected as a movement in the sell unit price of the relevant OneAnswer investment option on the day of the transition to the new underlying fund.

These costs will range from 0.10% to 0.60%, depending on the investment option. The higher costs will be incurred in respect of the transition for the Stewart Investors WorldWide Sustainability fund (0.50%) and the Antipodes Global (Long only) fund (0.60%). For details per investment option, please refer to the 'Additional information' on page 3.

The expected medium term benefit to existing investors from these underlying fund transitions in terms of improved fund performance is expected to outweigh the transaction costs incurred at the time of the transition.

What do the changes mean for investors?

- The investment objective, investment strategy, asset allocation benchmark, asset allocation ranges and the underlying fund manager will be changing.
- The ongoing fees will remain the same or be reduced, except for the Antipodes Global (Long only) fund which has a performance fee of 15%, which applies when the underlying fund outperforms the MSCI All Country World Net Index in AUD.
- New Buy/Sell spreads will apply to applications and withdrawals.
- There will be no change in the number of units that you hold. The changes will occur at the underlying fund level.
- You will see the name(s) of the investment option(s) change in correspondence and statements you receive from us after 18 September 2017.

Please refer to the additional information section for more details on the specific changes per investment option.

These changes will take place on or around 18 September 2017. Investors are not required to take any action, however investors may wish to speak to their financial adviser to understand what these changes mean for them and what options are available to them if they no longer wish to invest in the option(s).

Investment objective

To provide absolute returns in excess of the MSCI All Country World Index over the investment cycle (typically three to five years) at below market levels of risk.

Description

This fund may be suitable for investors with an investment horizon of five years or more and who seek capital growth and income via exposure to global stocks and are willing to accept the shorter term fluctuations in price typically associated with such investments.

Investment strategy

The fund typically invests in a select number of attractively valued companies listed on global share markets (usually between 20 and 60). The fund is also permitted to utilise exchange traded derivatives for risk management purposes subject to the specific restrictions that such derivatives cannot be used to gear portfolio exposure and that the underlying effective face value is limited to 10% of the NAV of the fund unless used to manage currency risk.

Currency exposure will generally reflect the currency of the underlying securities. However, where the Investment Manager believes there is a strong likelihood of a decline in the underlying currency, currency derivatives, both over-the-counter and exchange traded, may be used to hedge subject to the specific restriction that such derivatives cannot be used to gear portfolio exposure.
